

Missing Teddy

One warm, sunny morning Harry and his Mum had to go shopping. Harry wanted to take his teddy bear Ruffles with him. Mum said that he would have to hold Ruffles very tight so as not to lose him. Harry agreed and they set off to the shops. On the way they stopped at the park. Harry and Ruffles went on the swings and the roundabout. Harry liked the roundabout. Then Mum and Harry carried on along the road to the shops. When they got to the shops Harry went to put Ruffles into the trolley, but he was missing!
